

Anthony B. Brentlinger, M.D.

Education & Training

Pre-Medical:

- 1966-1969, Arlington High School, Park Row Drive, Arlington, Texas - Graduated
- 1973-1977, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas - Degree B.S. Biology

Medical:

- 1977-1981, University of Texas Health Science Center, San Antonio, Texas

Internship:

- 1981-1982, Rotating Surgical, University of Oklahoma Health Science Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Residency:

- 1981-1986, Orthopedic Surgery, University of Oklahoma Health Science Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Other Training:

- 1986-1987, Fellowship in Hand Surgery, The Campbell Clinic, Memphis, Tennessee, Lee W. Milford, M.D. Director
- 1984, Northwestern University, Orthotic and Prosthetic Training Program, Chicago, Illinois
- 1986, AO / ASIF Basic Course
- 1987, AAOS Upper Extremity Trauma Course, New Orleans, Louisiana

Military Service:

- 1970-1973, United States Navy, Active Duty, Two Tours Vietnam, Honorable Discharge - January 26, 1973
- 1986, Annual Visiting Professorship, Dept. of Orthopaedic Surgery Rehabilitation, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, "Functional Assessment Following Bilateral Wrist Fusion"

Employment History:

- September 1996 - Present, Arlington Orthopedic Associations, P.A., 800 Orthopedic Way, Arlington, Texas 76015

Current Hospital & Administrative Affiliations:

- February 2010- Present, Baylor Orthopedic and Spine Hospital of Arlington, Active
- February 2005 - Present, USMD Hospital at Arlington, Associate Status
- February 2000 - Present, The Surgery Center of Arlington, Active
- January 1987 - Present, The Medical Center of Arlington, Active
- June 1987 - Present, Arlington Memorial Hospital, Active Status

Specialty Certification:

- American Board of Orthopedic Surgery (ABOS), January 1989

Licensure: Texas - (August 23, 1981)

Membership in Professional & Scientific Societies:

- American Medical Association
- Texas Medical Association
- Tarrant County Medical Association
- Texas Orthopedic Association
- American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery
- The Millford Hand Club
- The Willis C. Campbell Club
- American Association for Surgery of the Hand

Honors & Awards:

- 1967 - 1969, National Honor Society, Arlington High School
- 1973-1977, Dean's List, Texas A&M University
- 1976, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Texas A&M University
- 1977, Graduate Summa Cum Laude, Texas A&M University
- 1977, Teaching Assistant, Microbiology, University of Texas Health Science Center

Presentations:

- 1984, American Academy of Pediatrics, "Infections of the Foot Following Puncture Wounds in Children", Chicago, Illinois
- 1985, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, Scientific Exhibit: "Peripheral Nerve Changes Following Epineurial Injections of Saline and Blood in Rat Sciatic Nerve", Las Vegas, Nevada
- 1984, Oklahoma State Orthopedic Annual Meeting - Presentation, Scientific Paper
- 1984, Annual Visiting Professorship, Department of Orthopedic Surgery and Rehabilitation, "Infections of the Foot Following Puncture Wounds in Children", Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
- 1985, Annual Visiting Professorship, Department of Orthopedic Surgery and Rehabilitation, "Peripheral Nerve Changes Following Subepineurial Hematoma Formation in Rat Sciatic Nerve", Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Publication:

- "Infections of the Foot Secondary to Puncture Wounds in Children", Orthopaedic Transactions, JBJS, Volume 9, No 1, Spring 1985
- "Perforation of the External Iliac Artery and Ureter Presenting as Hemorrhagic Cystitis Following Total Hip Arthroplasty", JBJS, 69-A: 620-622, 1987
- "Functional Assessment of Bilateral Wrist Arthrodesis", The Journal of Hand Surgery, 12-A: 1020-1024, 1987
- "Changes in the Rat Sciatic Nerve Following Subepineurial Injection of Blood", Clinical Orthopaedic and Related Research, 1988

Research Interests: Peripheral Nerve Injuries